

Question 24

- It is important that communication occurs in the automotive workplace so that there are no injuries, efficient products are ordered, ~~and~~ everybody gets ~~everything~~ everything completed on time.
- There are written, verbal and non verbal ways of communication in the automotive workplace.
 - verbal is when people tell others by talking eg the boss tells you to do something
 - written is when there is a note left from the boss etc.
 - non verbal is when you communicate without talking.